Annual Report on the Status of the Federal Reimbursement Maximization Special Fund
Fiscal Year 2002

Amount Expended Comments

$39,016 Pursuant to Sections 36-27 and 36-30, HRS, the Federal Reimbursement Maximization Special Fund is subject to special fund assessments for central service expenses and departmental administrative expenses. The funds were transferred to the State general fund via journal voucher dated June 30, 2002.

$31,000 The funds were used to meet the state match for contract services associated with the REACH program. REACH stands for Responsibility, Education, Attitude, Change, and Health. The program is funded by the federal Edward Byrne Memorial grant. The purpose of the REACH program is to provide an intensive domestic violence education and treatment program for sentenced male perpetrators.
